

I am against the Broadband over powerlines proposal as its benefits only the utility companies and generates too much interference.